
The GRIN presents a workshop on

SUPERVENIENCE AND NORMATIVITY

Day 1, February 28 2014

10h00-10h20 Coffee

10h20-10h30 Welcome Speech

10h30-12h00 Daniel Laurier (U. of Montreal)
"Reasons and Supervenience"

12h00-14h00 Lunch Break

14h00-15h30 Gerald Harrison (Massey U.)
"An Evidential Arugment against the Moral Supervenience Thesis and Reductionism about Normative Reasons"

15h30-15h45 Break

15h45-17h15 Carla Bagnoli (U. of Modena and Reggio Emilia)
"Supervenience and Normative Principles"

Day 2, March 1 2014

14h00-15h30 Antonino Rotolo (U. of Bologna)
"Logics for Normative Supervenience"

15h30-15h45 Break

15h45-17h15 Brian McLaughlin (Rutgers U.)
"Normativity, Supervenience and Semantic Determination"

Organized by Daniel Laurier and Josée Brunet

GRIN

(Groupe de recherche interuniversitaire sur la normativité)
Internuniverity Normativity Research Group

location
3150 Jean-Brillant Street, Lionel-Groulx Building, room C-2059 (metro Université de Montréal)

date
February 28 - March 1 2014