

Centre for Ethics, University of Toronto/ Centre de recherche en éthique (CRÉ)

Joint Conference/Atelier conjoint

April 14 & 15, 2016

Room 200, Larkin Building, 15 Devonshire Place

Thursday, April 14

1:00pm - 3:00pm

Families and Inter-generational Justice

Danielle Zwarthoed (CRÉ)

Should Future Generations Have Anticipatory
Autonomy Rights?

Andrée-Anne Cormier (CRÉ)

Reasonable Pluralism and Justice for Children

Andrew Franklin-Hall (UofT)

Perfection and Autonomy in Upbringing

3:30pm - 5:30pm

The Ethics of Place and Space

Marie-Noëlle Carré (CRÉ)

Landfills Futures in the Anthropocene

Ronit Levine-Schnur (UofT)

Ethical considerations in regulators'
decision-making processes

Avigail Ferdman (UofT)

Common features of perfectionist goods
and implications for the public sphere

Friday, April 15

9:30am - 10:50am

Bioethics and Institutional Agency

Stuart J. Murray (CRÉ)

An Ethics of Care, Giving: Toward a Critique of Neoliberal Biomedicine

Angela Martin (CRÉ)

Disability - An Essentially Contested Concept?

11:00am – 12:20pm

Beyond Borders: Law and Rights

Chris Tenove (UofT)

On the Agency of Victims: Empowerment and Disempowerment at the International Criminal Court.

Hilary Evans Cameron (UofT)

Fear and lies: Fact-finding in refugee status determination

1:00pm - 2:20pm

Insights from the History of Political Thought

Andreï Poama (CRÉ)

A Distinction With A Difference: Reconstructing
Aristotle's Division of Particular Justice

Clifton Mark (UofT)

Fantastical Realism and the Natural Law of Good
Manners: Hobbes in the Context of Honour and Civility

Centre for Ethics
UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

CENTRE DE RECHERCHE EN ETHIQUE